

Directions to Le Hameau de Borie from Bergerac Airport (approx 1hr)

Exit Bergerac Airport turn left onto the main road

Driving along the Monbazilliac Vineyards for approx 8mins, you will see a left bend in the road with a wine shop on the right-hand-side, at this junction turn left and follow the directions to Issigeac

From Issigeac follow the signs to Villereal

From Villereal follow directions to Monflanquin

At Monflanquin you'll go past a painting on a wall of a French maid/lady and the famous Black Prince (the painting is on the right-hand side as your driving along up the hill), once you past this painting you start to descend down the hill, you need to take the turning left / then turn left again / then turn right going towards the direction of Salles.

Driving through Salles heading towards Fumel keep on this road, things to look out for once you past Salles, a Pizza and Honey shop, which is located on a left hand corner, you'll cross a railway track, and you'll past a paper mill, at the end of this road you'll come to a main road, drive straight across this main road into the lane opposite, follow this lane for approx 5mins, and at the end of this lane, you'll come to small crossroads, at this crossroads you'll be on the D440.

Turn left onto the D440, driving away from Fumel, towards Chateau Bonaguil, take the fourth turning on the right, the C7 with directions to Chateau Bonaguil, you will also see a signpost for 'Le Hameau de Borie', follow the C7 down the hill, then take the first turning on the left.

Hurrah - you've found 'Le Hameau de Borie' for your wonderful holiday at Gite Borie Bonaguil
